Dear Terry,

I attended the first of my quarterly workshop sessions on July 9, 2008. I went into this thinking that it would be 'easy'. I'd think about some things, change some things and somehow miraculously move on. And as you can guess that's not how it's been. I can honestly say The Growth Coach has dramatically changed the way I am looking at my life.

I particularly enjoyed your focused, non-confrontational way your first quarter workshop was organized. I had fun and shared ideas freely with everyone in the room. Your accountability sessions in between workshops will keep me focused on my goals. I especially appreciated your emphasis on building a successful business as part of a successful life.

This process has made me keenly aware of how much clutter there is in a business when you're a one and only owner/operator. And even though there's much to do, I have made several successes in areas like cold calling, organizing priorities day by day, etc. So looking back on just the last month or so there has been more significant changes than I thought and I know it will just keep improving.

Thank you for getting me started on The Growth Coach. I am looking forward to our next workshop.

Sincerely,

Denise Spurlock
